[Verse 1]

I heard you but thought you were just a scheme
A preacher's game and a poet's dream
You told me you only could set me free
But pride and shame had been blinding me

[Bridge 1]

With one glance, just one chance to do it all again
I'd listen now to every word you say
You loved me and all I had to do was let you in
I'm sorry that my time has slipped away

[Repeat intro]

[Verse 2]

It's funny, so funny, and yet somehow
My humor's gone, I'm not laughing now
It's over, all over, I've done my thing
I've missed the mark, I've denied my king

[Bridge 2]

Oh, Jesus, my Jesus, had I known what I know now
That every word you told me then was true
My old friends—please tell them that if I could speak somehow
I'd tell them that I'm sorry I missed you

[Coda]

Sorry I missed you
Sorry I missed you
Yes, I'm sorry I missed you
